DR. CHARLES C. WARFIELD YOUTH COMMUNITY SERVICE AWARD

The Dr. Charles C. Warfield Youth Community Service Award was created to celebrate the success of youth who are involved in community service throughout the Kalamazoo/Portage vicinity. The late Dr. Warfield was a quintessential leader and community activist and served as president of the local NAACP branch and Education Chair for the NAACP Michigan State Conference for 8 years. He was active in many organizations and participated in a cadre of activities. His legacy will continue to resonate in our organization and throughout our community.

This prestigious award will acknowledge the fine efforts of a local African American high school senior who embraces the spirit of diversity, while being energetically and enthusiastically engaged in community service, community projects, and other community-based activities.

The Kalamazoo Branch will bestow a $500 award along with a one-year NAACP youth membership to a high school senior residing in the Kalamazoo/Portage area. The winner of the Dr. Warfield Youth Community Service Award will be honored during the Freedom Fund Banquet, Sunday, October 23, 2022 | 5pm | Radisson Hotel (100 W. Michigan Ave.) and will receive three (3) complimentary tickets, which include the honoree and two (2) guests.

If you meet the above criteria, please consider nominating yourself for this noteworthy award! The nomination form must be received by email on Friday, September 23, 2022 by 11:59pm EST.
